RHPA NEWS CHRISTMAS IS COMING!

This year we are delighted to be partnering with Art Projects for Schools to produce the children's Christmas cards and gift tags. Forms will be coming home in book bags before half term so stock up on the glitter and glue for an arty half term!

Art Projects for Schools have a simple to use online ordering and payment system. We will be collecting in the original artwork straight after half term to allow the finished cards to be returned to us for the start of December. All proceeds from the cards will be donated to the school council's chosen charity.

Full details will follow, but in the meantime you can see a brief overview of the project here:
